investment into the City of Riviera Beach.

We think it makes perfectly sound and good planning development, complies with the conditions, the standards as established in your land development code. And we're really just here to answer any questions and move this forward so we can comply with the conditions. We accept the conditions as written; we're fine with those. And we would ask for your approval.

CHAIR JAMES: Thank you. Before I go to Board comments, staff, are there any public comment cards? No?

MR. GAGNON: No, ma'am.

CHAIR JAMES: So we'll start with Board comments. Mr. Brown.

MR. BROWN: My first comment for Mr. Millar, your legal descriptions and sketches, there are a few errors that need to be addressed before it goes forward.

MR. MILLAR: I'm sorry, I didn't hear you, sir.

MR. BROWN: You need to talk to your surveyor. There are a few errors that need to be addressed before this can move forward.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: With the legal descriptions.

I know you say it's a housekeeping, I guess. Just why do you need the light at 22nd Street, because I know it's one at 23rd -- I'm sorry, 13th Street, it's one on 20th Street, so why do you need the light at 22nd Street? What is the importance?

MR. MILLAR: The need for that is that there will be -- traffic will be directed to that intersection, and based upon the analysis done by our traffic engineer and a review by the City, we have actually submitted a second time for the permit for that light. We're going to grant back to the City all the applicable easements for that signal. But based upon traffic engineering and safety, it's a requirement that we put that traffic signal, based on the warrants, the volumes of traffic at that location.

MR. GAGNON: Thank you. We have a different format tonight, so normally we have different microphone locations.

But the key and essential component of this is on the aerial view, now you can see the intersection of East 20th Street and Broadway. So there currently is a signal, a traffic signal at that location. So what will happen is with this abandonment request, the roadway will not be accessible from properties to the north.

Page 10

MR. GAGNON: Mr. Brown, I understand loud and clear. What we can do is we can revisit the legal description and make sure that if you've seen certain areas, being that's your area of expertise, if you've seen certain areas that need to be revisited, we'd be happy to do so. I don't think even if there might be an inconsistency in the legal description, the areas depicted on screen are the areas that are proposed to be abandoned, so whatever we need to do to ensure that the legal description accurately reflects those areas is exactly what we'll do.

 $\label{eq:mr.mill} \mbox{MR. MILLAR: Absolutely. I'm sorry I couldn't hear you.}$

MR. BROWN: Yes, the language has a problem in some areas, I'd say about four different areas.

MR. MILLAR: We'll make sure those -- we'll work with your staff and your Engineering Department to make sure those descriptions are accurate and reflect the correct property.

MR. BROWN: Okay.

21 MR. MILLAR: Thank you.

22 CHAIR JAMES: Okay, Mr. Gustafson.

23 MR. GUSTAFSON: No comment.

24 CHAIR JAMES: Ms. Shepherd.

MS. SHEPHERD: Yes, just a couple questions.

So what City staff and the applicant want to ensure is that there's still a traffic signal that will be working for that neighborhood to ensure that they can make a left turn across Broadway and head south. So East 22nd Street is the next location that will allow them access so they'll be able to maintain access through that community, and we feel like that is an essential component and condition of this abandonment request.

So we're basically replacing the existing functionality at East 20th Street, that existing light, and moving it to East 22nd Street for southbound traffic on Broadway if you're coming from that neighborhood to the north.

MS. SHEPHERD: So will it be a light there at 20th Street? Is that what you're saying?

MR. GAGNON: So the light at 20th Street will remain --

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay.

MR. GAGNON: -- but there will be a new light on 22nd Street to ensure that everyone in the neighborhood to the north can still make that south turn and have a traffic signal which guards that turn, so that way they will receive the access that they currently have in the future as well.

3 (Pages 9 to 12)

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay. Well, what is coming out of that, out of Rybovich? Because I live right there on 23rd, so I see they're doing a lot of work there. What's coming out of Rybovich? Is it going to be something big, or it's just going to be a lot of traffic in that neighborhood? Just what's going on?

MR. GAGNON: Well, for this phase, there's really not a new traffic study or traffic demand. What will happen during the site plan analysis is, depending on what the proposed uses are in the future, that will create a certain traffic demand, and staff will review that. We can provide the information to the Board, ensure that there's adequate capacity on Broadway and the streets in that neighborhood. So that will be part of the site plan component, that based on the conditions, will be coming before us in approximately one year or less.

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay, Jeff, so clear my mind a little bit.

MR. GAGNON: Sure.

MS. SHEPHERD: So you're going to put a traffic light there, but you're not clear on what's coming in or what's going out, but you're going to block it up with a traffic light?

MR. GAGNON: Well, what the traffic light

Page 15

MS. SHEPHERD: Is that true? MR. GAGNON: Yes, ma'am.

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay, I get it. Thank you.

4 MR. GAGNON: You're welcome. 5 CHAIR JAMES: Okay, Mr. Kunuty.

MR. KUNUTY: Yes, just a couple of questions. Are you going to still need that light at 20th, or is that --

MR. GAGNON: For right now, the answer is yes. As we move forward and during the site plan process, we'll revisit it.

From what I can recollect in previous discussions from years ago, FDOT has specific distance requirements between traffic lights. U.S. 1 is a State roadway, and there's a lot of conversation about what that distance is, is there adequate separation. So in the future I think there's still a need for the light at 20th Street, so that's not anticipated to go away right now, but if the demand changes, then we could definitely revisit it.

MR. KUNUTY: The property to the north, is that all private property on 21st?

MR. GAGNON: So if I remember correctly, there are some parcels that are currently owned by Rybovich, and please correct me if I'm wrong. So just north of that.

Page 14

2 14

Page 16

does is it, again, protects that southbound turn on Broadway.

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay.

MR. GAGNON: So currently at 20th Street, if you went to the intersection of Broadway and 20th, you would have a signalized turn. So if you want to go south on Broadway, you'd wait for the traffic signal and then head south. With this abandonment request, that light and the access to the light from the northern neighborhood wouldn't exist. So what we want to make sure is that the traffic signal is still available to the neighborhood and the community.

So we would have a new traffic signal at East 22nd and Broadway, so if you wanted to make that southbound turn on Broadway, you'd still have the same accessibility. So we're trying to make sure that the existing accessibility and existing condition is maintained. So it's not due to anticipated traffic demand, it's really just maintaining the community as is.

MS. SHEPHERD: Okay. So you can still have the light at 13th Street, you're going to have the light on 20th Street, and now you're putting a light at 22nd Street.

MR. GAGNON: That's correct.

parcels. So you can see just the red line configuration is supposed to identify the current parcels that are owned by Rybovich or their, I guess, LLC, and there may be a few just north of that that they may also have an ownership interest in. But there is East 21st Street, which is a City roadway which will be maintained, and then there are some private parcels there's various property owners that do own the

MR. KUNUTY: So it looks like the majority of the property up to 21st belongs to Rybovich.

MR. GAGNON: Yes. And what the ultimate goal is, and as part of the conditions of approval of this abandonment is to have Rybovich provide the City with really a master site plan within that one year timeframe. The current vision is really to create a campus for this property owner and this business, which we're anticipating to generate a lot of jobs and really a positive impact on the community. So that's what the current vision is and why this abandonment is important.

MR. KUNUTY: One final question. I don't know if there's a precedent for this. When the City abandons public property and gives it to a private enterprise, shouldn't there be some kind of compensation to the City?

MR. GAGNON: It's an interesting question. So technically, right-of-way, it's not seen as property in a sense that it's owned. So due to the State statute, what happens is based on the mid point or center line of the roadway, if a right-of-way is abandoned, they measure the mid point of the roadway, and then it goes to the adjacent property owners.

So in this situation, because Rybovich has acquired all the adjacent property, it will naturally go to the property owner, which is Rybovich. So that also explains why there's a little carve-out on Avenue "C," because if we were to abandon that in full, there would be property ownership questions.

So again, the true intent is to create that master campus for Rybovich, but there's really no financial incentive that the City can ask for. It's not really selling property in that sense, because it is right-of-way. But we are anticipating the anticipated site plan and future redevelopment of the area to have a positive impact for the City, tax revenue and things of that nature.

 $\label{eq:MR.KUNUTY: Yes. No, I'm sure of that. So I have no other questions.}$

CHAIR JAMES: Okay, Mr. Gallon.

20th Street, which are already within the fenced area, need to be abandoned. This will allow the new mega yacht lift to turn within its designated radius and operate safely and efficiently.

So I don't have any other questions. It seems like, well, they mostly own all of that area anyway. So like you said, it's not like we're giving it to them. They will be responsible for maintenance. So I don't have any other questions.

I don't know if that helped you any, Ms. Shepherd.

MS. SHEPHERD: Kind of. If I can -- since you read that, and knowing the area where I'm at, and I notice 22nd Street goes all the way down to the water. Am I clear on where I'm at, Jeff? Will that abandonment affect that the residents, us going back and forth to that water area? Or it seemed like Rybovich is taking all of that property. How will it really affect the residents in that area?

MR. GAGNON: So if I'm remembering 22nd Street correctly, I believe that might be associated with Viking and their facility.

MS. SHEPHERD: Yes.

MR. GAGNON: I think years ago, because the right-of-way went through the center of the facility,

Page 18

MR. GALLON: No questions.

CHAIR JAMES: I just want to read this out for the record, and I think this may kind of help to clear up some concerns or answer what Ms. Shepherd was talking about, within that year submitting the site plan and the true intent of why the road is asking to be abandoned. In our packets, under the Rybovich Company values, and like I said, I'm going to read this into the record because I know this is being recorded, so for those who may be watching and not have this information.

The Rivera Beach City Council maintains the sole discretion to vacate, abandon, discontinue, impose any existing public street within the corporate limits of the City of Riviera Beach.

The purpose and intent of the requested abandonment is to allow Rybovich to make a substantial capital investment of over 10 million in a mega yacht lift.

As a component of the redevelopment and advancement of the Rivera Beach facility, a substantial portion of the West Palm Beach shipyard operations are intended to be relocated to the Riviera Beach site. To provide the much needed boat service area for the larger vessels, portions of Avenue "B," Avenue "C" and

Page 20 it actually was abandoned to Viking, so it's not currently public access. This was probably five plus years ago.

So the scope of the abandonment proposal tonight is further south than that. It doesn't touch any sort of water access that exists. It's really a second phase from the previous abandonment that was approved in that same timeframe that -- actually, it would be helpful if we can go to the previous abandonment slide and the current proposal, because it kind of -- they fit together as puzzle pieces almost where you can see the phase one that was previously approved and phase two that's being requested tonight.

So if you can see on the scene now, there's an orange or peach colored line, and what that is demonstrating is the previous abandonment that was approved a few years back by City Council. So what that did is it allowed Rybovich to secure that certain area. Again, they are now responsible for that area. They have to maintain it.

And if you can see on the screen now, the line that is --

MR. MACHADO: Blue.

MR. GAGNON: -- circling the right-of-way in blue, that is tonight's proposal. So you can see the

It seem like it's working fine now. MR. GAGNON: Well, what will happen for the traffic signal, that light, with this current proposal, access to the light will be eliminated because 20th Street, for this abandonment request, you no longer will be able to drive south onto 20th Street to get to the traffic light if you're living in the neighborhood to the north. So the important reason for having the new traffic signal is to ensure that anyone in the neighborhood can still go to a traffic light and have what they refer to as a guarded signal or a clear path to turn south on U.S. 1, because if we didn't maintain that ability, then you'd have to almost play Frogger,	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	one.
