

Waste Management Community Benefits Request for Donations

The City of Riviera Beach, in conjunction with Waste Management Inc. of Florida, has established a Community Benefits Policy. Under the Policy each elected official shall be entitled to designate funds to support approved public projects for public purposes. Public purposes include, but are not limited to, charitable events, not-for-profit organizational events or programs and City functions or projects (which may include contributions to the City's Scholarship Fund or the City's Housing Trust Fund). All requests for donations must be presented to the City Council and approved by a majority of the City Council. The City will attempt to process all requests within fourteen (14) days of City Council approval.

Ineligible uses include the purchase of tables at events, campaign contributions, or payment for salaries or operational expenses. Funds cannot be used to cover an elected official's travel, meals, or for his or her personal benefit or gain or for the personal gain of relatives as defined by City Code, the Palm Beach County Code of Ethics or State Statutes, as applicable. Funds cannot be given to an entity/agency/organization for which the elected official is a director or officer.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

organizations and governmental entities (except federal agencies) obtain a sales tax exemption certificate (Form DR-14, Consumer's Certificate of Exemption) from the Florida Department of Revenue.

New, Simplified Application

A new Application for a Consumer's Certificate of Exemption (Form DR-5) is now available. The new Application streamlines the process for establishing that a nonprofit organization or governmental entity meets the statutory criteria for each exemption category. Information on who qualifies, what is exempt, and how to establish qualification is provided for each exemption category. This new Application is available at: www.myflorida.com/dor/forms

Departmental Review of Expiring Certificates

Sales tax exemption certificates expire after five years. However, holders of exemption certificates no longer need to reapply for a new certificate every five years. The Department will review each exemption certificate sixty (60) days before the current certificate expires.

- For those nonprofit organizations and governmental entities located in Florida, the Department will use available public information to determine whether an organization or entity continues to qualify for a sales tax exemption certificate. If an organization or entity continues to meet the statutory exemption criteria, a new exemption certificate will be issued. If additional information is needed, a letter requesting documentation will be mailed to the organization or entity.
- For those nonprofit organizations and governmental entities located outside Florida, the Department will mail a letter requesting whether the organization or entity wishes to have their certificate renewed. The letter will also provide a list of documentation needed for the Department to renew the exemption certificate.

If the organization or entity fails to respond to the written requests for information or documentation, or the Department is unable to confirm that the organization or entity continues to qualify for an exemption, a written notice denying the renewal of the exemption certificate will be mailed to the organization or entity.

Greetings,

My name is Nicole Stokes, Program Director and Community Outreach Coordinator for Vibe 95, LLC. This year, Vibe 95 in conjunction with Talented Teen Club, Inc. will host its 3rd Annual Turkey Drive in Riviera Beach, FL on Saturday, November 16, 2019 from 1-5pm. This community initiative was established by Vibe 95 as a charitable event for needy families during the holidays. Since it's inception in 2017, we have fed more than 500 families each consecutive year. In 2019, however, we want to double our efforts and give away 1,000 turkeys to families in need. In addition to free turkeys, we would also like to make this event a community fair of sorts, where attendees will have the opportunity to visit on-site local agencies who can offer additional social services. In order to make this happen, we are asking for the support from both the City of Riviera Beach and the Riviera Beach CRA.

We would like for the event to be held at the Riviera Beach Marina Promenade, as the event has outgrown its former location. We are also requesting donations/sponsorship for a kids zone, hydration station, marketing collateral, volunteers and promotional street team in order to ensure that all Riviera Beach residents are aware of the event and will have a good time.

In addition to our partnership with Talented Teen Club, Vibe 95 donates turkeys to Washington Elementary School's Annual Staff Thanksgiving Dinner. Ultimately, it is the goal of Vibe 95 LLC, to not only bring weekly entertainment on iHeart Radio, but we want to be a consistent beacon of light in our community.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at 561-268-1442 or vibe95soflo@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Nicole Stokes
