'Save The African-American Youth'

About the Organization:

S.T.A.A.Y. is a non-profit, tax-exempt mentoring program founded by Claudius Nalls and other Riviera Beach community leaders who are concerned about the future of black youth. The program will have several components, including mentoring, tutoring and 'exposure to life' outside of their home environments. The goal: to train, uplift and teach young people that they can have a future that does not include drugs, crime and educational and social failure. Donated funds will be used to support the work done in support of S.T.A.A.Y.'s goals.

The Honorable Dr. Julia Botel
Office of City Council
City of Riviera Beach
600 W. Blue Heron Boulevard
Riviera Beach, FL 33404

Dear Councilman Botel,

As someone who is familiar with Riviera Beach, I'm sure you have noticed the condition of many of our African-American youth, especially our young men. They exist, today, in an overwhelmingly dire environment—lack of jobs, lack of quality education, trouble with the law. The list of woe, even for our young ladies, is long.

That is why we created S.T.A.A.Y.—Save The African-American Youth—as a much-needed mentoring program that will work with middle school children, ages 10-15, and their parents in an effort to strengthen their character, broaden their horizons and introduce them, as they mature, to opportunities they are rarely afforded in their daily lives.

The main tools: a twice-monthly Saturday education series; strong and certified mentors, primarily male; and partnerships with other organizations that are already working outside our community to help us cut down on the social failure we see so much of in our community.

We need your help! We need your participation on this long, important journey and, importantly, we need your financial support. We have plans, we have volunteers. You are welcome to participate in any way you can—join our board, serve as a mentor, volunteer on Saturdays—but please consider a donation of $1,000 as well.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to call me, directly, on my cell: 561-385-4013. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Claudius Nalls
President
