

We have consulted with:

1. Mr. Lee Glaze – Magnet Coordinator of the Bak Middle School of the Arts
 - a. He was supportive
 - b. He can engage with students and is connected to local artists
 - c. He advised me to speak to Trina Slade-Burks
 - d. He said there are local/regional artists interested in being involved in public art
2. Trina Slade-Burks
 - a. Founder of the “No More Starving Artists” foundation
 - b. Former long-time resident of Riviera Beach
 - c. She encouraged us to think broadly about what public art is and beyond only sculptures. She noted this is an opportunity for the city to raise the bar for AIPP programs and really create something special.
 - d. She noted that art is really anything that draws people in and engages them in a creative manner
 - e. She noted that there is a pool of local and regional artists to pull from and work with
 - f. She noted that working local helps the local community but also results in artists and installations that work with the current climate and may have lower overhead due to less travel, etc.
 - g. She advised me to reach out to Elayna Toby Singer who is the administrator of the PBC AIPP program for questions about costs
 - h. She is a local resource
3. Elayna Toby Singer – Palm Beach County
 - a. I emailed her with questions about costs of an AIPP program. No response
4. Glenn Wise, Boynton Beach AIPP program administrator weissg@bbfl.us
 - a. Formerly worked in Jacksonville.
 - b. Formerly did consulting work on AIPP plans.
 - c. Master Plans cost 15-60k depending on what existing information or structure you have and what you are trying to achieve
 - d. Master Plan includes visioning and prioritization. Identification of what impact you are trying to achieve and funding sources. (general fund, impact fees, developer fees, grants, etc.)
 - e. Cited AIPP programs in Pompano, Coral Springs, Delray, West Palm Beach, Jacksonville, Boynton Beach
 - f. Larger programs have budgets of 500k – 1,000,000 a year for installations.
 - g. Debbie Dubay was an AIPP consultant. Now working as municipal staff. Another resource.
 - h. It might be hard to find a local consultant for AIPP master planning

5. Laura Atria – operates under her own firm, LMN Arts, LLC., Ft. Lauderdale, FL.
Laura.Atria@copbfl.com (954) 632-3006
 - a. She works part-time with the City of Pompano Beach as the Public Art Program Manager
 - b. She is also contracted with the City of Coral Springs and the Town of Davie as the Public Art Administrator and Consultant.
 - c. She is currently writing the 10-Year Public Art Master Plan for the Town of Davie.
 - d. She advised that a 10-Year Master Plan normally runs between $50k and $100k; usually the average is $65k - $80k.
6. Ruby Childers, AICP – Downtown Manager – Development Services, City of Boca Raton
rchilders@myboca.us (561) 239-0344
 - a. She advised that a simple plan would cost about $25,000 for a consultant to draft it.
 - b. SN: I've been in communication with her since last summer and she is eager to assist and excited to see us join in on the AIPP community.
7. Sybille Welter – AIPP Coordinator – City of West Palm Beach scwelter@wpb.org (561) 822-1521
 - a. She advised that the Master Plan cost will be based on the City's needs and if it includes community outreach, documentation of existing work, and pre-selection of sites.
 - b. She stated that the first public art master plan for the City of West Palm Beach was very extensive with meetings, community outreach efforts, research, locations for art, etc. and cost $75,000.
 - c. Her recommendation was for us to decide what the master plan will provide and how our City will use it – this will provide a cost range for the final document.
8. Dawn Sonneborn – Senior Planner – City of Palm Beach Gardens dsonneborn@pbgfl.com
 - a. PBG does not have a Master Plan
 - b. Public Art created by developers are maintained by developers.
