RIVIERA BEACH CELEBRATES THE LIFE, LEGACY AND MUSICAL REIGN OF THE LATE, GREAT 'PRINCE'

The Office of Riviera Beach Mayor Thomas Masters, and the City's Youth Empowerment Program are sponsoring a musical celebration in honor of the legendary contributions of the Prince Rogers Nelson, internationally renowned simply as PRINCE.

Residents from all across the county are invited to the FREE musical concert in the city's complex Amphitheatre that will feature the Derek Mack Band and other performers all paying homage to the Grammy award winning artist, singer, song writer, guitarist, businessman and activist.

"He was the consummate entertainer", says Mayor Masters, acknowledging that Prince's music was filled with messages reflecting his fight for social justice, political understanding and African American culture. Following the incident in Baltimore with Freddie Gray, Prince penned a song in tribute to him that included the line, "Does anybody hear us pray for Michael Brown and Freddie Gray?"

Prince had an impact on many different forms of music including Hip-Hop and Rock & Roll that will forever influence the genres for generations. His song "Purple Rain showcases his royal reign in the music industry like no other before him or since", says Mayor Masters.

The celebration and musical tribute to PRINCE is Friday, May 13th, from 6pm to 8pm in the Riviera Beach Municipal Courtyard, 600 W. Blue Heron Blvd.
