Councilwoman Hubbard:

The holidays are fast approaching and many families in our community would go without if not for the generosity of others. It is for this reason that we are requesting your help. Each year we set a goal of feeding 100 families, and this year we are falling short. We have collected some canned goods and received some other donations, and with your assistance and the requested $100.00 we are closer to meeting our goal.

$500.00 XDH

Thank you in advance for your help with this drive to support our community.

Thanking you,

Rev. Griffin Davis
